Rob Robinson

Business Energy Manager at MJC Energy consulting group
Wakefield, Rhode Island, United States

Summary

It's not just the bid that sells you.

It's the character of the person, the talent, the experience and the love of the work.

Devotion to the task and the trust you feel.

After all, you are asking someone to come into your home, come into your life, and help you realize a personal vision...beautifully, professionally and comfortably.

Let me introduce myself. My name is Rob, owner of F.P Seaside Painting.

Wherever you live in Rhode Island, myself and our team of local licensed and insured contractors would love to talk with you about your next painting project, because I believe that we are the painters you are looking for.

We are dependable, local artisians...mindful of your budget and meticulous with the brush.

We are here to help. Please give us a call for dependable professionals that love what they do...

YES we really love to paint!!!

Bring experience in management, customer service, sales, marketing, project management, retail and construction industry. family- being a dad and a husband

To run a successful business that is an important part in the community.
